My dream of magnificent Love is real thanks to you, Junie Moon, and it feels like my prayers have been answered. You instantly knew me and the Shadow that followed me around making it hard for me to attract the right man. Finding love at 61 meant breaking down the walls around my heart and loving myself first. Thank you, Junie - Victoria Baldasare

I kept selecting the same guy over and over and I wondered why it never worked out. By doing Junie's program, I was able to understand why I was choosing the people I was choosing and I was able to break through. Now I'm getting married this summer! I've found the love of my life and I'm so grateful for all of Junie's support.

I was uncomfortable dating and didn't have a lot of confidence. I struggled with trusting men. I felt the need to be in control. I now know where my challenges came from- my controlling dad. This program helped me date with confidence, know I'm enough and I found out more about myself than any of the therapy work that I experienced.
